Battery Carriage House Inn, Charleston, S.C.

Given its history as a centuries-old port town and bastion of the Civil War, it is understandable that Charleston is one of the most haunted cities in the country. And among all the hotels in this "haunted city," Battery Carriage House is probably the spookiest. The inn's popular Ghost Adventure package includes two nights in a haunted room, an evening Ghosts of Charleston walking tour, a daytime carriage tour and a bottle of bubbly to deal with the fright. Guests in Room 8 have reported seeing the headless torso of a Confederate soldier levitate beside the bed. Spooky Southern hospitality..
